Scores of lists of the names of men who are believed willing to contribute to financing the scout movement for three years were passed among the diners, who struct off the names of the individuals they will canvass for subscriptions. Refore the lists were returned to Mr. Houesman practically all of the names had been struck off. President Moses announced that $710 had already been contributed, though the campaign had not begun. Seven of the contributions were for $190 each, and the other for $10. Senator Scott said he would gladly contribute, and Colonel McEirov announced that the G. A. R. felt itself under a lasting debt of gratitude to the Boy Scouts for their efficient services at Gettysburg, Detroit, and in Washington during the last encampment, and that the organization would ald the scouts in every possible way.

GEN. MAXIMO B. ROSALES.

Announcement has been made at th Southern Commercial Congress by Dr Clarence J. Owens, managing director that Gen. Maximo B. Rosales, former vice president of Honduras and com nander-in-chief of the Honduran army cate the Pan-American doctrine, will peak at the seventh annual convention of the Southern Commercial Congress. at Charleston, S. C., December 13-17. of the Southern Commercial Congress, at Charleston, S. C., December 13-17.

General Rosales will speak on the Pan-American doctrine, which was first suggested by Winfield Jones, secretary of the National Defense League, in a statement last August. Senor Pedro Grave De Peralta, former member of the Honduran diplomatic corps, who accompanied General Rosales to the United States from Honduras, also will address the congress at Charleston. General Rosales and Senor Peralta said today that the Pan-American doctrine, which, if made effective, would result in the defensive solidarity of all the countries of South and Central America with the United States against any possible European var. has been well received in Central America. All of the Central American countries favor this new doctrine, and all of them are ready, it is reported by the distinguished Honduran visitors, to make treaties with the United States and with each other to give concrete form to the doctrine.

Woman Pays Laborer $5 for Subway Seat

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Queer things happen in the subway. Here is an incident of yesterday's storm the wind and rain time to leave her thoroughly soaked.

She looked about anxiously for a seat. A laborer got up and offered his. "Please keep your seat. I prefer to stand," she said, but the man moved toward the platform.

As the train neared Fourteenth street she was seen fumbling with her pocket-she was seen fumbling with her pocket-shook. Stopping the laborer, she handed him a $5 nill, with "Please take thisfor your courtesy."

The laborer frowned, then smiled, took the bill, thanked her, and walked away.

DOES AWAY WITH TRUSS

The PLAPAO-PADS are entirely different from the article commercially known as a "truas." In fact, they are designed to do away with bands of steel and rubber that chafe and pinch. Their remarkable success is due to the principle of keeping constantly solubed, the scientifically compounded absorbent-astringent medication called PLAPAO. The purpose is to contract and strengthen, the weakened abdominal muscles, thus closing the hernial opening as nature intended so the rupture CAN'T come down.

IN THINGS ELECTRIC

Special Effort to Be Made for Housewife During Prosperity Week in Washington.

Schecial efforts to interest Washing-ton women in things electric, are to be made during electrical prosperity week, which this city, in connection with the rest of the United States, will observe from November 29 to December 4.

Dealers throughout the city will have from November 29 to December 4.

Dealers throughout the city will have special displays of apparatus designed to lessen household duties by means of electrical current, and demonstrators, many of them women, will be on hand to show how to get the best results with the least effort and cost. Arrangements are also being made to have special sales of certain utensils at lower prices than ever offered before.

An electric vehicle parade, probably at night, when the lighting effects could be used most effectively, is also being considered by the committee, headed by John R. Galloway, which is in charge of the week's program, and this, too, will be of especial interest to women, as the electric pleasure car has long been designed especially to appeal to feminine tastes.

A statement recently prepared by the Society for Electrical Development, which sponsors for electricial prosperity week, points out that 70 per cent of the people of the United States use electricity in one way or another every day, while 10 per cent earns its living directly or indirectly through the electrical industry.

There is now invested in this country approximately $5,000,000 in this one industry, and the daily expenditures of all the interested companies is placed at $2,000,000 daily. This development has been most ravid and it is also pointed out that 10 cents worth of electrical Development, which has headouarters in New York is co-operating with the Washington committee of dealers, contractors and power station representatives, to make the coming prosperity week here one of the most effective in the country.

Fist Fight Enlivens HAMLINE TO OBSERVE Biltmore Musicale

Segurola, of the Metropolitan Smites Teacher Who Criticises Anna Fitziu.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Anna Fitziu, who used to be well known as Anna Fitzhugh in the "Wizard of Oz," but who is singing more pretentious music now, gave a musicale at the Hotel Biltmore. Two of the audience who sat side by side to hear her were William Thorner, a music teacher, and Andra de Segurola of the Metropolitan Opera House torces. As Thorner had trained Miss Fitziu's voice since she left musical comedy he felt that he had a right to criticise her singing. He turned to Segurola and said:

felt that he had a right to criticise her singing. He turned to Segurola and said:

"Too bad, too bad. She's not in good voice today, and anyhow she has made a poor selection of songs."

Segurola, who is said to have a great personal interest in Miss Fitziu, objected strongly, saying that Thorner had no right to utter such criticisms.

One word led to another, and the smart audience suddenly saw Thorner jump to his feet and pump right and left rapidly into Segurola's face. The opera singer clinched, and the two men thrashed around the room. Then Miss Fitziu ran to them and managed to quell the battle. She soothed Segurola's injured face, for the singer's eye was badly swollen.

Later in the day the quarrel between the two men was patched up.

When Miss Fitziu was playing in "The Wizard of Oz" at the Fark Theater it was reported that she was engaged to Dave Montgomery of Montgomery and Stone. One of her most ardent admirers at the time was E. R. Thomas, who gave a dinner in her honor at the Hotel Ansonia which made the suests gasp over the elaborate menu and the handsome favors.

AUDIENCE DELIGHTED BY GABRILOWITSCH

Russian Pianist Gives Brilliant Recital In Ten Star Series at National.

Ossip Gabrolowitsch, Russian pian ist, four in the Ten Star Concert Series gave a brilliant recital yesterday after noon at the National Theater.

gave a brilliant recital yesteraly afternoon at the National Theater.

A program made up from the works of Mendelssohn, Schubert, Weber, Beethoven, Chopin, and Gabrilowitsch with three short numbers by Glazounow, Tscherepine, and Moskowski, was not only well chosen, but was delivered in a sympathete manner. Although possessing the same excellence from the technical standpoint, the work of Gabrilowitsch is a pleasing deviation from the rather cold present day virtuoso style, which seems to endeavor only to impress by ponderosity or seccentricity.
If the interpretative player, who clings to Beethoven, Chopin, and Mendelssohn, is old fushioned, then the tastes of the public are old fashioned, for the audience which stayed until 6:30 to hear this Russian planist, exhibited every sign of keen appreciation, and intense enjoyment of a program which they knew.
Following the final program numbers
Mr. Gabrilowitsch gave Schubert's "Moment Musical" as an encore.
